

THE FEDERAL SPOTLIGHTBudget Bureau Bans
Earlier Work Start

By JOSEPH YOUNG

CPYRGHT

William F. Friedman, one of the world's leading experts on secret codes who is retiring as special assistant to the director of the National Security Agency, was presented with the National Security Medal by Allen Dulles, chief of CIA. It was the latest of a series of honors conferred on Mr. Friedman, who compiled a brilliant record as a Federal career official.